

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pulaski County Circuit and District Courts Announce Day 2 for “Get Right with the Court” Initiative

Little Rock, AR – The Pulaski County Circuit and District Courts are pleased to announce a “spillover” event: Day 2 of “Get Right with the Court” leniency and community engagement event. This initiative is designed to assist individuals with court-related financial obligations without the fear of arrest. ONLY THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO ATTENDED THE SEPTEMBER 28TH EVENT AND WAS NOT SEEN WILL BE SEEN ON THIS DATE. THOSE INDIVIDUALS SHOULD HAVE A WHITE SHEET OF PAPER WITH THE NEW DATE, JUDGE LATONYA HONORABLE’S SIGNATURE, AND THE ATTENDEES SIGNATURE. IF THE ATTENDEE DOES NOT HAVE THIS PAPER, S/HE WILL NOT BE SEEN.

Details:

- Date: November 16, 2024
- Time: 9:00 AM – 2:00 PM
- Location: Pulaski County Courthouse, 401 West Markham, Little Rock, AR
-

About the Initiative: The “Get Right with the Court” event aims to remove barriers that prevent individuals from fully participating in society. It is a chance for community members to address their legal financial obligations and seek assistance in a non-threatening setting.

“Judges Cara Connors, Melanie Martin, Rita Bailey, Andy Gill, Mark Leverett, Milas “Butch” Hale, and Karen Whatley will be hearing cases on this date”, says organizer, Judge LaTonya Honorable. Judge Honorable further remarked, “We would appreciate your help informing the community of this very important service. As judges, our duty extends beyond administering justice; we strive to embody compassion and provide access to justice, aiming to alleviate the distress associated with financial burdens incurred from fines and other financial obligations. Thanks to ALL of these judges for being servant leaders in our community.”

For more information, contact Judge LaTonya Honorable, lahonorable@pulaskimail.net.