ShaRhonda J. Love Announces Candidacy for Arkansas Senate District 15

Little Rock, AR – May 30, 2025 –ShaRhonda J. Love, a seasoned public health advocate and community leader, has officially declared her candidacy for the Arkansas State Senate representing District 15, encompassing parts of Little Rock and Pulaski County.

With deep roots in public service and a proven track record addressing some of the state's most pressing challenges, Love enters the race with a clear focus: improving access to healthcare for all Arkansans and combating food insecurity.

"As a mother, a community leader, and a lifelong Arkansan, I've seen how food insecurity and lack of access to healthcare rob our families of opportunity," said Love. "In the Senate, I will work every day to make sure no child goes to bed hungry and no family is left behind when it comes to their health."

Love has spent over two decades at the forefront of public health in Arkansas. As former Executive Director of the Arkansas Minority Health Commission, she expanded the state's Mobile Health Unit program, bringing free screenings and preventative services directly to rural and underserved areas. Under her leadership, the Commission addressed critical health disparities with innovation, compassion, and data-driven solutions.

Additionally, Love has also been a passionate partner with the Arkansas Foodbank, where she continues her mission to combat hunger and promote wellness in the state. She is a board member with the American Cancer Society, offering support to cancer survivors and leading public health education events aimed at early detection and prevention.

"I'm running for State Senate because I believe every Arkansan deserves access to quality healthcare, nutritious food, and opportunities to thrive," said Love. "District 15 is rich in diversity and resilience, and I am committed to being a voice that uplifts our communities and addresses the challenges we face head-on."

ShaRhonda J. Love holds a Master's in Public Health and has been widely recognized for her commitment to improving lives through policy and grassroots engagement. A lifelong resident of District 15, Love is deeply rooted in the community she aims to serve. She and her husband, current State Senator Fredrick J. Love, have dedicated their lives to public service and community engagement. Together, they are active members of Greater Second Baptist Church and proud parents of two children.
