Little Rock, AR — The Kappa Koat Drive at the Little Rock Watershed was more than a service initiative; it was a living testament to legacy, love, and collective purpose. Hosted by the Little Rock Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. in partnership with Kappa League, the event honored the spirit and vision of Watershed founder, the late Rev. Hezekiah Stewart, whose belief that, “love is multiplied when shared,” was evident in every interaction.

The Little Rock Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.’s commitment to making a difference in the community is acknowledged by its unwavering community support. “We go beyond the call of duty so Central Arkansas communities can thrive during the holidays,” said Kappa member, Markell Foreman. warmth and symbolize dignity, compassion, and the quiet miracles that happen when the Little Rock Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. serves the community.

Leadership voices echoed the heart of the mission throughout the day. A.D. Abston, Director of Kappa League, emphasized that service is not only about giving back, but also about teaching the next generation to lead with empathy and compassion.

Brian L. Pickett, Polemarch, reinforced the importance of tradition, noting that the annual coat drive reflects a long-standing commitment to care, consistency, and community-centered action.
